Dear Mr. Pillsbury,

Will you
Kindly let me know what day you shall next be in town, (for I wish much for a little conversation about the cause) & I will come in town that day in preference, to see you. I can conform without inconvenience to your time, as I am

obliged to be in town frequently now, & one
day is the same to me
as another.

Ever, your friend
truly, A. W. Chapman.

of age & he frequently now, I think day is the same
as another.

Ever your friend
truly, W. W. Chapman
